1. I hereby transfer to the Catholic University of Eichstätt-Ingolstadt (and on its request also to the German National Library in Frankfurt and/or Leipzig, the Landesbibliothek and the responsible special collections library) the non-exclusive right to store the submitted document(s) electronically and make it/them publicly accessible in data networks. No remuneration will be paid. My other copyrights will not be limited or restricted and I can additionally publish the work in part or in full at any time.
2. I furthermore transfer the right to conversion for long-term archiving purposes to the Catholic University of Eichstätt-Ingolstadt and/or the German National Library provided that the content is preserved (the original archiving is retained).
3. The University Library of the Catholic University of Eichstätt-Ingolstadt is obliged to make the publication available online for at least five years. After expiry of this period, it is free to choose the distribution medium. Long-term archiving of the doctoral/habilitation theses published on the server is guaranteed by delivery of the publications to the German National Library.
4. If required, the University Library of the Catholic University of Eichstätt-Ingolstadt can also amend and/or complete metadata provided by me.
5. I also declare that I have clarified all copyright and licensing matters and that there are no conflicting rights of third parties in relation to the publication.
6. For doctoral theses: I hereby confirm that the publication of the doctoral thesis was approved by the doctoral committee and that the electronic form corresponds to the approved original version in form and content.
7. For habilitation theses: I hereby confirm that the electronic form of the habilitation thesis corresponds to the approved version in form and content.

The standard agreement of the University Library shall be effective for every document. By selecting a Creative Commons License, you can additionally determine the conditions for further use of the published document.
